

FIATA WORLD CONGRESS WITH CIFFA
SEPTEMBER 22 - 26, 2008
VANCOUVER B.C.

“INFRASTRUCTURE, TODAY’S CHALLENGE FOR TOMORROW’S SUSTAINABLE TRANSPORT”

DATIN PADUKA O.C.PHANG
PRESIDENT
INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF PORTS &
HARBORS
(IAPH)

WORLD CONTAINER GROWTH PROJECTIONS

- By 2015 :
 - 620 million teus
 - One billion teus
- THERE IS ANTICIPATED GROWTH

THE CHANGING GLOBAL DYNAMICS IN THE MARITIME SECTOR

- Logistics as the Key to Success in Global Economies with Ports as the gateway
- Ports Future Development in conjunction with climate change initiatives

GLOBALISATION & ECONOMY

- Challenge to Economies & Industries
- Supply Chain & International Trade
 - Efficiency
 - Total Logistics
 - Shippers demand pattern

GLOBALISATION & ECONOMY

- Transport Mode Operators
- Multinational Companies
- Foreign Direct Investments
- Coordination of Various Players

IAPH : GLOBAL ALLIANCE OF PORTS AROUND THE WORLD

- 220 member ports and 130 port-related companies / organisations of 90 countries
- Handle :
 - 90% of world container traffic
 - 60% of world maritime trade

IAPH : WORKING TOGETHER

- Technical Committees tackling all key issues facing the world port community
- Playing a proactive role in developing global framework at IMO, ILO, UNEP, UN agencies

SUSTAINED & WORLDWIDE APPROACH

- IAPH shall take the lead in sustained and worldwide approach :
 - Sharing best practices, know-how, information among ports
 - Developing practical guidelines and standards
 - Promoting application of new technology, innovative approach

GLOBAL COOPERATION OF PORTS TO COMBAT CLIMATE CHANGE

- Working with Regional Ports Associations
- Working with C40 WPCC leading ports
- Working with IMO, international organisations
- Working at the IAPH Port Environment Committee
- Working at the IAPH World Ports Conferences as the global platform

WORLD PORTS

- Clean Shipping
- IMO & UN related agencies collaboration
- Efforts to promote CO2 reduction in terminals

WORLD PORTS

- Environmentally-friendly measures as a responsibility
- Collaboration with port cities
- Collaboration with supply chain players to reduce CO2 emissions

WORLD PORTS

- Innovative logistics to move towards environmental performance
- Role of various parties through cooperation, information sharing & Best Practices
- Policies to implement initiatives of World Ports for a better climate

THANK YOU

www.iaphworldports.org